

STANLEY JEFFERSON BAILEY JR.

Stanley J. Bailey Jr. of Massanutten, VA, passed away on 1 April 2013 at Rockingham Memorial Hospital. He was 74 years old.

“Jeff” was born on 28 June 1938, in Buffalo, N to the late Stanley Jefferson Bailey Sr. and Thelma Elizabeth Edwards Bailey. Stanley graduated from East Aurora High School, the Naval Academy, The George Washington University and the Naval Postgraduate School in Monterey, CA. He moved from Florida to Massanutten and was a member of the First Baptist Church in Elkton. He served in the U.S. Navy as a naval aviator, naval sciences research coordinator/administrator, air antisubmarine officer, operations analyst and instructor, Naval Science School. He received the Armed Forces Expeditionary Medal, Navy Unit Commendation, National Defense Service Medal and the Navy “E” Ribbon.

Survivors include his two sons, Stan Bailey III and his wife, Holly of Massanutten,VA, and Adam Bailey and wife, Carrie of Norfolk,VA; two daughters, Ellen C. Bailey of Norfolk,VA, and Mary Deskins of Grosse Pointe Woods, MI; sister, Lynne Huston and her husband, William of Hawaii; and grandchildren, Jeff Bailey IV, Alex Bailey, Clara Deskins, Robert Deskins and Beau Bailey. In addition to his parents, he was also preceded in death by a sister, Donna Royston.

Shipmate May-June 2013