

WARREN JENNINGS BLANKE, JR.

Jay was killed on the afternoon of 7 February when his A-4C crashed into the Mediterranean Sea, while operating off the USS FORRESTAL. His death was confirmed when his remains were found at the scene of the crash. Jay is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Warren J. Blanke, and his sister, Gail, of Lakewood, Ohio. We wish that we could express the great sorrow that we all feel whenever one of our own passes away Jay, as all the others, will be missed very much.
