

Charles Irving Cook

Charles Irving Cook passed away on 12/12/18. Born 04/02/38 in Seattle, he was the second child of Harry Standish Cook and Myrtle Elizabeth (Weedin) Cook. He graduated from Pasco HS, the US Naval Academy and received his Masters in Marine Affairs from the University of Rhode Island.

After serving 32 years as a naval officer, he worked as a business and financial advisor, realtor and COO of an engineering firm.

He was predeceased by his wife of 51 years, S. Patricia (Foley) Cook and is survived by his daughters, Sylvia & Heather, his son-in-law John, grandchildren Evan & Anna, and his partner Patricia Lewis.

The Seattle Times