

Peter Brown Dolan

Peter B. Dolan, 76, a longtime Pasadena resident, passed away peacefully at home on April 15, 2015 following a 16-month battle with bone marrow cancer. Peter loved to talk and used his gifts as an orator throughout his 47 years as a lawyer in Los Angeles. In 1986 he successfully argued a case before the U.S. Supreme Court. He was born and raised in Brooklyn, N.Y., and liked to boast that he met his bride of 53 years, Jacqueline Gruning Dolan, in first grade at St. Anselm's School. He was a graduate of the U.S. Naval Academy (class of 1960) and, after serving in the Naval Reserve, rose to the rank of Commander. He obtained his law degree from the University of Southern California. He was known as "Gip" to his six grandchildren, and took special joy in spending time with them on winter ski trips or during the summer, vacationing on Cape Cod. Peter is survived by his wife, Jacqueline; his daughter Kerry Dolan and her husband Graham Button; and his son Peter Jacob-Dolan and his wife Eliza.

Los Angeles Times