

JON ELDEN SURRATT

Jon went to Navy Flight School. He dropped out to become an NFO. I understand he resigned from the Navy in 1966 or 1967 and moved to Minnesota to pursue a law degree at the University of Minnesota. While living in the Minneapolis area he was in the Naval Air Reserve, he died in 1969 when a Navy patrol plane crashed into a Minnesota cornfield. He married his Naval Academy sweetheart right after graduation. She was from Baltimore. They had two children. It would have nice to have seen Jon go far in his career. As with all of our deceased classmates, Jon has been surely missed.
